HISTORY OF CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES

This history records that the Odontological Society of Victoria, founded in 1884, did amalgamate with the Australian College of Dentistry Alumni Society in December 1920. Previously in November 1916 the Australian College of Dentistry Alumni Society had merged with the Dental Graduates Society of Victoria.

At the Annual Meeting of the amalgamated Societies, held in November 1922, the name was changed to the State Dental Society of Victoria.

At a meeting of delegates from the five State societies, held at Canberra on the nineteenth of June 1928, the "Australian Dental Association" was formed.

At a meeting of the State Dental Society of Victoria, held on the twentieth day of November 1928, it was decided that the Society should become the Victorian Branch of the Australian Dental Association, and that thereafter the Society should be known as "Australian Dental Association, Victorian Branch".

The Federal Constitution of the Australian Dental Association was originally drawn up in 1928 and has been revised on several occasions.

In 1961 this Constitution was amended to provide that Members of the State Branch be also members of the Australian Dental Association, where previously only the six State Branches as such were members.

In 1966 the Victorian Branch Constitution was revised after several years' thought and consideration, and certain basic changes were made. These provided, inter alia, authorized powers for the Branch Executive, the election of officers of the Branch by the Branch Council, and the appointment by the Branch Council of the Committees, previously elected by the Members. These were adopted on 2nd August 1966.

In 1976 further revision of the Constitution seemed desirable and a committee representative of all sections of the Membership was set up to determine what changes were necessary. From this investigation and further study by the Council a new document was drafted.

Significant changes were few. However, the Branch Council was empowered to determine subscription rates, the number of elected Branch Councillors was increased to fourteen and the office of Permanent Vice-President was discarded in favour of the option to have up to two Honorary Vice-Presidents with a time limit of three years on their initial appointment (and possible extension for a further three).

Other administrative functions were streamlined, powers of Branch Council and Executive more clearly defined and a more workable document produced. This was put to an Extraordinary General Meeting on 30th July 1979 and adopted.

In 1988/89 substantial reworking of all By-Laws was undertaken in order to achieve necessary updating and uniformity of style. In the process, most of the By-Laws were renumbered and retitled as follows:

Previous By-Law No. 1 as amended became By-Law No. 1:

CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

Previous By-Law No. 2 as amended became By-Law No. 2.1:

AFFILIATION

All of these By-Laws were then adopted in April 1989.

A few consequential alterations to the Rules, notably references to the no longer operative Defence Fund, were ratified in May 1989.

With the incorporation of the Branch in November 1990, various changes were required to reflect the incorporated status of the organisation.

In November 1992, significant modifications were made to the Constitution, such that the number of elected Branch Councillors was increased, the method of electing Federal Councillors was changed, and the Branch Council and Committee year was changed from calendar to fiscal.

In June 1994, the period for which a member was able to remain in arrears before termination was reduced.

In October 1994 By-Law No. 6.6 (initially numbered 8) concerning the QUALITY ASSURANCE COMMITTEE was established.

In November 1995 By-Law No. 6.5 concerning the PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE was established.

In June 1996 By-Law No. 8 concerning MEMBERSHIP was established.

In June 1996 the Constitution and By-Laws were reviewed to comply with the new National Competition Laws. Changes were also made to allow two-year terms for Branch Council and Standing Committees, to recognize that Branch Councillors are Directors of the Branch, and to revise the classes of Membership.

In March 1997 By-Law No. 6.3 concerning the DENTAL NURSES TRAINING COMMITTEE was rescinded.

In March 2000, significant modifications were made to the Constitution such that the number of elected Branch Councillors and Executive Committee were reduced, the quorum for both was set to a more flexible three-fifths of those eligible to attend, the Immediate Past President may be an ex-officio member of Executive Committee, the titles of the Executive Director and Executive Officer were changed to Chief Executive Officer and Assistant Honorary Treasurer respectively, and the Finance Committee was replaced with the Finance and Audit Committee.

In February 2004 By-Law 6.1 concerning COMMITTEES and By-Law 6.2 COMPOSITION AND OBJECTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES were established. This included establishing the PROFESSIONAL PROVIDENT FUND POLICY ADVISORY COMMITTEE as a Standing Committee.

In February 2004 By-Law No. 6.1 concerning THE DEFENCE COMMITTEE, By-Law No. 6.2 concerning THE DENTAL HEALTH EDUCATION COMMITTEE, By-Law No. 6.3 (Vacant), By-Law No. 6.4 concerning THE GRADUATE EDUCATION COMMITTEE, By-Law No. 6.5 concerning THE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE and By-Law No. 6.6 concerning THE QUALITY ASSURANCE COMMITTEE were rescinded.

In September 2004 By-Law No. 1 concerning THE CONDUCT OF MEETINGS was amended to By-Law 1 STANDING ORDERS.

In October 2004 By-Law No. 2.1 ETHICS was renumbered By-Law 2, By-Law No. 2.2 PROCEDURES FOR ENQUIRY INTO PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT and By-Law No. 3 INCORPORATED DENTAL PRACTICES were rescinded, By-Law 3 MANAGEMENT OF DISPUTES AND ETHICAL COMPLAINTS was established, and By-Law No. 4 THE GROUPS OF THE BRANCH was retitled By-Law 4 REGIONAL GROUPS OF THE BRANCH.

In October 2004, significant modifications were made to the Constitution such that more current terminology was used. Definitions for Australian Dental Council candidate, Chairman and Federal Councillor were added and those of Committees and Indemnity Scheme were amended. The Definitions section was retitled Interpretation and the power for Branch Council to deny or annul membership on the basis of a false declaration was added. The number of elected Branch Councillors was increased by two. The titles of Honorary Treasurer and Assistant Honorary Treasurer were changed to Chairman Finance and Audit Committee (FAC) and Executive Councillor respectively. The status of the FAC was changed from a Standing Committee to one appointed annually pursuant to Rule 43. The concept of Honorary Vice-Presidents was abandoned. Duties for the President and Honorary Secretary were expanded and were added for the Vice-President and Vice Chairman of FAC. The quorum for the June and Annual General Meetings was reduced to 10 and ability for Members to give a proxy vote for all General Meetings was added. The role of Federal Councillors and Branch representatives on Federal Council was clarified. Disciplinary penalties for Members were simplified and a new Rule 102 on Disputes Involving Members was added.

In June 2005, minor modifications were made to the Constitution such that the composition of the FAC no longer required the Immediate Past Chairman to remain a member until the Annual General Meeting.

In October 2009 significant modifications were made to the Constitution in response to legislative requirements introduced by the Associations Incorporation Amendment Act 2009 (Vic).

In October 2010 the term Chairman was replaced with the term Chair.

In June 2012 significant modifications were made to the Constitution to reflect changes adopted by the Association. Reciprocal rights were updated such that members from other branches are not liable to pay the annual subscription in the year of transferring. Provisions for participating in meetings via telecommunications were included. Rules 109 (conflict of interest) and 110 (intellectual property) were added.

In October 2012, significant modifications were made to the Constitution to more clearly distinguish between the Branch membership and Indemnity Scheme Subscriptions, allow the mechanism for the option of the Branch annual subscriptions for membership to be paid in instalments and allow more flexibility for the Branch to select the best possible indemnity scheme for Members in an ever changing environment.

In June 2013 minor modifications were made to the Constitution to indicate that the Branch pay Association subscriptions for Honorary Life Members and to include the Recent Graduates and Students Committee on the list of Standing Committees.

In October 2013 significant modifications were made to the Constitution to ensure consistency with the Associations Incorporation Reform Act 2012 (Vic).

In October 2014 minor modifications were made to the Constitution to strengthen the Purpose regarding supporting members, to avoid ambiguity about nominations for Branch Council and to comply with requirements under the Associations Incorporation Reform Act 2012 (Vic) regarding the custody of books.

In June 2015 minor modifications were made to the Constitution to replace Latin phrases, delete unnecessary words such as “from time to time” and change the title of the Finance and Audit Committee to Finance Risk and Audit Committee.

In October 2015 modifications were made to align deceased member spouse access to benefits with the Association Constitution.

In June 2017 minor modifications were made to align Branch Federal Council vacancy rules with the Association Constitution.

In October 2017 modifications were made to standardise grammar, numbering and reduce duplication between Rules and By-Laws. Provision was made to allow for electronic elections to be held. Modifications were made to wind up the position of Honorary Secretary.

A final modification allowed correct direction of Honorary Life Membership nominations through the Honours and Awards committee.

In June 2018 minor modifications were made to remove the impracticable requirement for an application for election to membership be proposed and seconded by two members.

In October 2020 modifications were made to rename “Active Members” to “Ordinary Members” for national consistency and to enable Branch Council and Executive Committee to conform with the minimum number of meetings required other than meeting in person.

In June 2022 modifications were made to simplify the Purposes and Powers of the Branch, delete reference to an Official Journal, appointment of Deputy Branch Councillors and that notices and ballots must be “posted”.

In October 2022 a modification was made to change the arrears period for a member of the Branch to cease to be a member to 14 days.

In October 2023 numerous modifications were made to accommodate the winding up of the Executive Committee and defining Office Bearers. Standing Committees were classified as Governance and Advisory.

In June 2024 modifications were made to accommodate that in the Association Constitution there were no longer Federal Councillors appointed by the Branch.

In October 2024 modifications were made to reflect the requirements of the Association Incorporation Reform Regulations 2023 (Vic). These modifications were made; to support the use of modern communication technology, to change the process of disciplinary appeals to be considered by an ‘appeals tribunal’ and clarify the rules for appointing and paying a mediator to resolve an internal grievance. Further modifications were made to no longer reference any specific committees or differentiate between Standing Committees and Ad Hoc Committees.
