

What is Disability? & The Root to Success — A step by step guide to simplifying endodontic treatment

A/Prof. Warren Shnider

A/Prof. Warren Shnider attained his specialist qualification in Special Needs Dentistry from the Royal Australasian College of Dental Surgeons in 2006. Warren works in all areas of SND.

A/Prof. Shnider is a committed advocate of oral health for people with special health care needs, and holds several leadership positions in SND in Victoria.

He is Head of Unit of the Special Needs Dentistry department at the Royal Dental Hospital of Melbourne, and the Academic Lead in Special Needs Dentistry at La Trobe University. He also holds positions in the Australian Dental Council, the Dental Board of Australia, the Royal Australasian College of Dental Surgeons and the Australian Dental Association Victorian Branch.

Outside of work, Warren enjoys road cycling, skiing, theatre, walking the dog, and is a member of Scouts Victoria.

Dr. Artika Soma

Dr. Artika Soma obtained her B.D.Sc. from the University of Otago, NZ in 2004 and a Doctorate of Clinical Dentistry (DClinDent) specialising in Endodontics from the University of Otago, NZ in 2009.

Dr. Soma was involved in teaching in the Faculty of Dentistry at the University of Otago, NZ and is a Member of the Australian Society of Endodontology.

She also has a role in lecturing and clinical demonstrating at La Trobe University in Bendigo.

Dr Soma has been practicing as an Endodontist since 2009.

Where:

The Foundry Hotel
2 Old High St,
Bendigo

Dinner and drinks included

When:

Thursday 23rd March
6:30pm

Cost:

Members—$50

Non-members—$70

Includes 2CPD points

Please RSVP by Tuesday 21st of March