

AUSTRALIAN DENTAL ASSOCIATION VICTORIAN BRANCH INC.

BY-LAW 4

REGIONAL GROUPS OF THE BRANCH

1. INTERPRETATION

Unless inconsistent with the context or subject matter

- (1) A " Regional Group" shall be a group comprising Members of the Branch in a particular geographically defined district;
- (2) words and expressions defined in the Rules of the Branch shall be given the same meaning in this By-Law.

2. OBJECTS

The objects for the formation of Regional Groups of the Branch are :

- (1) to further the interests and objects of the Association and of the Branch;
- (2) to establish closer liaison between Members of the Branch practising within the area allotted by the Branch Council to each Regional Group;
- (3) to afford a medium for discussion and consideration of:
 - (a) any matter referred by the Branch Council;
 - (b) any matter for possible referral by the Regional Group to the Branch Council or to a Regional Group delegates meeting convened as provided for in these Regulations;
 - (c) matters of a clinical, scientific or professional nature or otherwise of mutual interest to Members;
- (4) to provide a means of co-operation and social intercourse between members of such Regional Groups.
- (5) to provide continuing professional development activities for eligible Branch Members

3. REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE ORGANISATION OF GROUPS

- (1) Formation of Regional Groups
 - (a) Any twelve or more Members of the Branch in a particular geographically defined district may make written application to the Branch Council for the formation of a Regional Group, such application to state the full names and addresses of the applicants.

To formally be accepted by the Branch Council the Regional Group must adopt the Model Constitution contained within this By-Law and only then can the name of the Branch be used and other benefits of special association be available.

- (c) Each Regional Group shall retain its existence without further formality and shall be subject to the provisions of these Regulations.
- (d) The Branch Council may, in its sole discretion, either approve or reject an application for the formation of a Regional Group after consultation with representatives of the applicants and of such other parties as the Branch Council thinks fit, including (without limitation) representatives of other Regional Groups.

(2) Description of Regional Groups

- (a) When approving the formation of a Regional Group the Branch Council shall define the boundaries within which membership applies and shall allocate a name for such Regional Group. (Appendix 1)
- (b) The Branch Council shall have the power to alter the boundaries or name of any Regional Group or amalgamate or subdivide certain Regional Groups as it thinks fit PROVIDED ALWAYS that not less than three months' notice in writing of such proposed action shall be given by the Branch Council to the Regional Group or Groups concerned.

(3) Finance

Each Regional Group shall arrange its own method of finance. The office bearers of a Regional Group shall be empowered to make financial calls on its members sufficient to cover the costs of meetings and other incidental expenses.

(4) Limitations of Regional Groups

- (a) The members of a Regional Group shall be bound by the Rules and By-Laws of the Branch and no Regional Group, either in its own name or in the name of the Branch or of the Association, shall without the express sanction of the President make any press statement or have any communication whatsoever with any authority: governmental, local or otherwise.
- (b) In the event of a breach of the Rules or the By-Laws by those acting on behalf of a Regional Group, the Branch Council may, after consultation with those concerned, by notice in writing, dissolve any such Regional Group.

(5) Delegates Meetings

- (a) Each Regional Group shall appoint not more than two delegates to attend each meeting of delegates of all Regional Groups (and of such other bodies or groups as the Branch Council shall at its sole discretion determine) and the Executive of the Branch, which shall be convened for the discussion of matters of common interest.
- (b) Such combined meetings as aforesaid shall be held as frequently and at such dates and venues as are determined at the sole discretion of the Branch Council.
- (c) The Branch Council shall arrange for at least two months notice of the date of the meeting to be given to each Regional Group and shall dispatch an agenda to each Regional Group for the meeting at least fourteen days prior to the date of the meeting.

- (d) On the requisition of at least half of the Regional Groups respectively, the Branch Council may convene a special conference within thirty days from the date of such requisition. Notice of such special conference shall state the objects thereof and no other business shall be considered at such special conference beyond that stated in the requisition.

(6) Continuing Professional Development

Each Regional Group should conduct continuing professional development activities for their members in accordance with the guidelines of the Dental Board of Australia.

(7) President's Representatives

The President shall appoint a representative and an alternate representative from the Branch Council to each Regional Group.

President's Representatives normal registration fees will be paid directly to the Regional Group by the Branch.

Regional Group Office Bearers shall ensure that time is allocated on each meeting agenda for the President's Representative to give an update on ADA activities and seek feedback from the members.

(8) Clarification

Any doubt arising as to the interpretation of these Regulations shall be submitted in writing to the Branch Council of the Branch for decision, and the decision of the Branch Council on any such matter shall be final and binding.

4. MODEL CONSTITUTION FOR GROUPS

THE ADAVB <...> GROUP
